

OH+S

DHB Occupational Health + Safety Conference

Speaker Biography

Susan Coggan

MPET, B. Ed, Dip FLM

Susan has over twelve years experience in adult training during a varied career in education, real estate, the Public Service, and non-profit organisations. She has been a director of several small businesses and an initiator of an investment club.

Her achievements include

- Coaching assessing and training in Certificate IV Frontline Management.
- Creating an audit compliance for an Australian Registered Training Organisation.
- Designing an audit based 3-day OHS training programme, which is delivered across Australia and parts of Asia
- Writing leadership development programmes
- Investigating Lifelong Learning, as a research assistant at the University of Newcastle
- Organising and designing business & operational plans within a legal framework for a small business

Susan's key role at PIC is as a "Trainer of Trainers and Assessors", so workplace trainers become effective in their roles. Many go on to gain credits for the National Certificate in Adult Education and Training Level 4 - 5.

Susan Coggan's qualifications include a Masters in Professional Education & Training (Workplace & Vocational Education & Training), Diploma of Frontline Management and a Graduate Certificate of Personnel Management. She has been a member of the Australian Institute of Management, Australian Share Association and Australian Association of Psychological Type

At weekends she ignores the housework to read her favourite subjects of personality, finding your passion and prosperity.