

OH+S

DHB Occupational Health + Safety Conference

Speaker Biography

Dr John Kennelly

Dr John Kennelly is a medical practitioner working in family practice/emergency medicine and as a barrister with a special interest in medical law. He is a senior lecturer in the Department of General Practice and a member of the Human Participants Research Ethics Committee at the University of Auckland. He teaches community emergency medicine and has academic interests in evidence-based medicine, medical decision making, and occupational health law and legal/ethical aspects of health care rationing.