Speaker Biography

Rachel Haggerty

General Manager
Adult Health Services
Waitemata DHB

Rachel has been a General Manager in the public health sector for many years. Rachel has worked in senior management positions in metropolitan and provincial hospitals in Auckland, Christchurch, South Canterbury and Gisborne over the last 18 years. For the last eight years she has worked for the Waitemata District Health Board which serves the largest population of any DHB in New Zealand.

Rachel has considerable experience of business case development in a public health care setting where resources are always scarce, but there is always opportunity to make sure we provide quality healthcare to our communities and a safe workplace for our workforce.

She has a Masters of Business Administration and Bachelor of Arts degree from Canterbury and is the mother of three young daughters, and resides in Waitakere City.
