PAYING FOR TOMORROW'S HEALTH

biography biography biography biography biography biography biography

Richard Wallace, Executive Manager Commonwealth Bank

Richard Wallace is an Executive Manager with Commonwealth Bank, New Zealand Branch and a member of the Bank's Structured Asset Finance Division. He holds degrees in economics and finance from Canterbury and Victoria University. He has recently joined the bank from the position of General Manager Funding at Air New Zealand where he was responsible for the financing of the airline's fleet replacement programme which saw over 50 aircraft enter the fleet during the last 5 years. Richard has held finance roles with Telecom New Zealand and other New Zealand companies. He commenced his career as an economist with the Reserve Bank of New Zealand followed by 7 years with the National Bank of New Zealand.